Every human being has the capability to connect with this source. An ironic and critical example of suicidality resulting from the isolation brought about by an inability to come out is shown in the cult classic film Heathers When Veronica Winona Ryder and JD Christian Slater murder two bullying, homophobic high-school football jocks and set the scene to look like a suicide, they leave behind the following fake suicide note: Ram and I died the day we realised we could never reveal our forbidden love to an uncaring and un-understanding world.
